About the webinar:

Effective wound healing starts with skilled assessment. In this focused, one hour webinar, we'll explore the foundations of wound assessment, clinical decision-making, and the often-overlooked art behind individualized healing. From identifying key wound characteristics to aligning dressing choice with healing goals, this session empowers clinicians to elevate their wound care practice with confidence and clarity.

Learning objectives:

By attending this webinar, attendees will enhance their knowledge and skills in the following areas:

- Perform comprehensive wound assessments
- Interpret wound bed characteristics
- Differentiate between wound types and healing trajectories
- Apply holistic, patient centered approaches to optimize the healing environment

Who should attend:

Nurses, Tissue Viability Teams, Allied Health Professionals, Community and Acute settings.
